PROFILE

As an MBA Finance candidate with hands-on experience in the Capital Markets division, I have built a strong foundation in financial analysis, investment strategies, and market dynamics. My expertise is further strengthened by certifications in financial Accounting, Advanced Excel, Power BI, and Tally Prime with GST, along with successfully completing the NISM VA Exam. I possess a deep understanding of GAAP, IFRS, and IND AS, which allows me to analyze financial statements, ensure compliance, and apply these standards to improve financial reporting. With a focus on Taxation and financial Statement analysis, I continually refine my skills to optimize financial performance and deliver measurable value in the financial sector.

INTERNSHIP

Finvision capital market LLP

JUNE 2024- AUG 2024

During my internship, I developed a strong understanding of both Technical Analysis and fundamental Analysis to evaluate financial markets. I applied key Technical Analysis tools such as Dow Theory, Head and Shoulders patterns, Moving Averages, fibonacci retracements, and Volume analysis to forecast trends and identify trading opportunities. I also integrated fundamental Analysis to assess company financials and intrinsic value, ensuring a comprehensive market evaluation approach.
