Hi,

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your resignation letter and express our sincere regret regarding your decision to leave the company. We value your contributions and the dedication you have shown during your time with us, and it is truly unfortunate that we must part ways.

As a valued employee, your expertise and commitment have played a significant role in our success. We understand that everyone's career path may take unexpected turns, and we respect your decision to explore new opportunities.

Nevertheless, we understand that you may have already made up your mind, and we want to ensure that your exit from the company is as smooth as possible. To facilitate this, we have prepared an exit process deck, which is appended to this email. It provides comprehensive information about the necessary steps and procedures to follow during your transition. We hope this document will assist you in navigating the exit process seamlessly.
