Hi Tony,

Thank you for your email and for letting me know about your decision. I truly appreciate your kind words and the dedication you've shown during your time at Tide.

Please note that your last working day will be July 30, 2025. I appreciate your readiness to support the transition, and your help with handing over responsibilities and training your successor will be greatly valued. I will review the next steps regarding formalities and exit procedures and get back to you shortly with details.

Thank you again for your contributions. Wishing you all the best in your next chapter.

Thanks.

Hi Pratibha,

I hope you're doing well. I'm writing to formally resign from my position at Tide, with effect from today, July 1, 2025.

I want to express my gratitude for the opportunities I've had while working under your leadership. I've learned a great deal during my time here and value the support, guidance, and collaboration from both you and the entire team.

To ensure a smooth transition, please let me know what the next steps are. I'm ready to assist with handing over my responsibilities, documenting ongoing projects, and training whoever takes over my role.

Thank you for your understanding and for everything I've gained during my tenure. Please let me know if there are any formalities—such as paperwork, exit interviews, or specific handover notes—that I should complete.

I would also appreciate, if you could keep this resignation confidential for now, as I'm still preparing for how best to share the news with the wider team.

Warm regards,

Tony Joseph
