Hi Team,

I hope this message finds you well.

I am writing to formally resign from my position at Porter as a Senior Business Executive. I have had the privilege of being part of this organization since December 2021, and I sincerely appreciate the opportunities for growth and development that have been provided to me. My journey here has been marked by continuous learning, promotions, and strong performance, all of which I value deeply.

Please consider this letter as the formal initiation of my resignation process. I understand and respect the notice period policy, and in the event of any shortfall in the notice duration, I am willing to have the corresponding amount adjusted in my Full and Final (FNF) settlement.

I am committed to ensuring a smooth transition during this period and will do my best to hand over responsibilities effectively.

Thank you once again for the support and experiences over the past years.

Hi Vishal,

I noticed that you approved the resignation and mentioned the Last Working Day (LWD) as 5th June 2025, based on a 30-day notice period with 0 recovery days.

However, Mohit has requested an early release, with 19th May 2025 as his LWD. Since you've approved this change over email, we will proceed with 19th May as the LWD, which includes 17 days of recovery.

Please confirm if this is okay.

Thank you!!

Hi Nikita,

I hope this message finds you well.

I am writing to follow up on my resignation letter, in which I had initially mentioned 19th May (Monday) as my last working day. Due to some personal commitments that require my immediate attention, I would like to kindly request that my last working day be revised to 16th May (Friday) instead.

I assure you that I will do my best to complete all outstanding tasks and ensure a smooth handover before my departure. Please let me know if there are any formalities I should complete to facilitate this change.

Thank you for your understanding and support.
