Dear Md Kamran,

Your resignation has been submitted successfully on February 6, 2026.

Your requested release date has been noted. However, your actual release date will be updated by your HR partner.

You will find attached a set of clearance guidelines and documents needed to complete the exit formalities. Given below are some quick tips for your notice period:

- Time management tasks: Check and update your leave/attendance/efforts as soon as possible. You will not be able to update/cancel/modify timesheets or leave on the system from 3 calendar days before your relieving date. Tickets or email requests regarding such modifications will not be accepted. If you foresee any overtime during the last seven calendar days, request your manager to share the details with the time and attendance team.
- Data security and transfer: Official data/information/files that you have access to will continue to be governed by the same data security policy requirements during your notice period. Please ensure that your personal information is transferred
