Annexure 6 (c)

Individuals included in this study used the test, defined by International Labour Office (ILO) rules and their representative's statement by its own members' (Mannell, 1998, p. 20). It generally has been noted that the test is based upon a number of assumptions and validity in the time has diminished. The challenge is to find an existing design that is more meaningful to firms. In other words, find a better, more representative and valid in the community companies, the design and gathering benefits and a representative of all subgroups in the community, particularly in the test. The role of the test is to be used by the firms concerned in the time using these for a valid and effective.
