Hi Ali —

Appreciate everything you've contributed here. Wishing you the best ahead.

Thanks,
ST

Hi ST,

I am writing to formally resign from my role at Samespace as recent structural and geographical changes, including the move from in-office to a remote/hybrid model and workplace relocation from Mumbai to Pune, do not align with my personal commitments and career goals.

I would like to sincerely thank you for the opportunity to be part of Samespace. Working with the leadership and colleagues across functions, and being part of a company that values thoughtful design and strong product craftsmanship, has been a meaningful learning experience. This journey will always remain etched as a highlight of my professional journey.

As per my notice period, my last working day will be on 20th March .I will ensure a smooth transition and am happy to assist with any queries or support required during this period.

Wishing team Samespace continued success ahead.

Regards,
