Dear Vaibhav,

Thank you for your email.

While I am saddened to see you leave, I respect your decision and wish you all the very best in your future endeavors. Your contributions to Puranik's have been valued, and you will be missed both professionally and personally.

Please ensure a smooth handover of your responsibilities before your last working day as per our policy and confirmed through HR. Let me know if there is anything I can do to support you during this transition.

Wishing you continued success ahead.
