I know this person has records so why can't I find results?

There could be multiple reasons why a person or records may not be available within our system. Among the most common are:

- The individual's record has been expunged, truncated or removed from public access.
- The search criteria entered within our search form may not directly match the data available within our database, thus it is important to always check that the information entered into the search form is accurate and up to date prior to submitting the records search form. Please check your spelling and try your search again.
- Our search coverage areas include over 2 billion records, but not all states and counties offer digitized records it may be helpful to check our coverage areas.
- Due to federal and state laws this type of data is not available for public access.
