Credits

UK Credits - This refers to the standard credit rating for the UK. Credit is a quantified means of expressing and measuring learning equivalence across the UK HE system. One credit equates with 10 hours of learning effort or notional learning time. Undergraduates are required to pass at least 90 credits to complete their year of study.

ECTS - This refers to the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System. UK Credit values can be translated into ECTS credit values by dividing the UK credit value by two e.g. a course with a UK credit value of 30 would have an ECTS credit value of 15.

Mark

Undergraduate courses

For undergraduate cohorts starting before the 2000/01 academic session, the Pass Mark was 33%. For later cohorts, the Pass Mark was 40%.

A mark of NA indicates that a mark has not been awarded for this course. The following is a broad indication of the undergraduate marking range:

40-49% - Adequate, 50-59% - Good, 60-69% - Very Good, 70-100% - Excellent

Postgraduate courses

A standard Pass Mark for postgraduate courses was set at 50% with effect from the 2001/02 academic session.
